Back together again!

After a long time apart, it is great to get together to share!

Our September meeting was an opportunity to share news and celebrate accomplishments with snacks and friends. Thanks to Deb Carpenter for her past leadership and organization! We hope she has a great time picking out new art materials with her gift certificate. Members shared news of awards and events they had participated in over the summer months. Along with catching up with each other, we introduced new members, among them, Lynne Kaiser who is our publicity person, and Maria DeAngelo who will write our newsletter. Thanks to Tina Johnston and Faith Weldon who have volunteered to be on the lookout for opportunities to hang our work.

Our new Facebook group has launched so feel free to post art related news. Visit and join at Schenectady Art Society. Laurel-Le and Sue van Heukelom will be co-administrators.

Saturday workshops are back! Join us on October 16 at The Niskayuna Senior center as Edie Cannizo leads a workshop in fibre art. We will send information about how to sign up and cost soon.

Our October and November meetings will be different. Due to Covid precautions, we are not able to meet at the First Reformed Church of Scotia in the evenings. The church space is reserved on October 19, 11am to 3pm and November 9, 11am to 3pm. We are still looking for other possibilities for our usual evening meetings. Ideas for a room large enough to provide good ventilation and social distance? Contact Laurel-Le, 518-466-6543

Shows and More!

We are switching out paintings at the Turf Tavern on October 12 between 10:00 am and noon. The theme for new paintings will be Fall/Winter and 2 works from each artist will create a great show. We will send a reminder by email and request a sign up so that we know who to expect.

The SAS show at the Niskayuna Library was well received. The library and visitors were happy to have the work back, and it was a lovely show. Thanks to all who helped to hang the work.

The picnic at Mabee Farms was a beautiful day! There was good weather and a chance to catch up after a year apart. There was an opportunity to share special thanks to Deb Carpenter for all that she has done for the group as President.

In other news, the member survey resulted in information to help guide activities for the upcoming year. Thanks to those who have in interest in sharing demonstrations.

MURAL PROJECT SUMMER 2021

Over the summer the Friends of Woodlawn added a new mural to their beautiful park upgrades. This lovely neighborhood park is used by families and neighbors of all ages. Now when kids jump into some fun at the Splash Pad, they have an SAS mural to enjoy. The mural was designed by Ginger Hoepfner and painted by SAS members. SAS received a donation of $150.00 from Friends of Woodlawn for this wonderful mural.

Stockade Art Show

Beautiful Weather and Member Art!

It successful day at The Stockage Villager's Outdoor Art Show on September 11th, 2021.

Congratulations to the members who created beautiful displays for this annual event. Pictured is the work of some of our members.
